—By Arthur Brisbane

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25.—On this sunny Pacific coast nothing is dull, many things are unusual.

Divorce cases are interesting proceedings, extreme and nearly always on the side of the husband.
One woman, Mrs. Elmer Nelson, whose husband works in a bakery, paid no attention, at first, when he talked in his sleep about "Sweet Cookie." She thought he was dreaming about business. But when he coupled the word "mamma" with "Sweet Cookie" she became suspicious and asked a divorce.

Another married lady objected to her husband's use and abuse of the radio. She told the judge, "He turns it on as loud as he can and then beats me, and the radio keeps the neighbors from hearing me yell." She got her divorce.

We are learning to take orders justifying Northcliffe's statement
"the Americans are a docile people." A proud native son walked from his bungalow bedroom to his sitting room, hearing a deep voice say "Raise your arms high above your head," obeyed instantly, standing with his face to the wall. The voice went on, "Now take a deep breath and count five."

Then he knew it was the "daily dozen" and took his arms down.

The national business survey conference of the United States Chamber of Commerce tells President Hoover business has returned to near normal, nothing to worry about, no need for unusual stimulation.

Several million Americans out of work would enjoy a little stimulation if it got them a job. It is, however, a comfort to know that general business, on which all jobs depend, is doing well and that members of national commissions feel optimistic and comfortable.

News to worry grain merchants in Europe and interest American farmers.

Russia's soviet steamer Proletariat arrives in the Baltic with 2,500 tons of grain offered by the "soviet trade bureau" at prices 25 to 35 cents a bushel below world market prices.

Communist Russia promises heavy exports of rice, oats, barley, wheat, and flax, if necessary, at prices ruthlessly.

Russia's government really interests itself in farmers, buying tractors for them by the thousands, experimenting intelligently with wholesale farming, destined to solve the farm production problem as wholesale manufacturing has solved automobile production.

G. E. Marchand, head of the National Education society, tells Paadena ladies "Woman is changing mentally as educational methods change."

The "beautiful-but-dumb" type is rapidly vanishing, says the learned one. The ladies are just as beautiful but no longer dumb.

They never were dumb, as a matter of fact, from Eve onward.
Many women understanding foolish man, have pretended to be less intelligent than they were. Man wishes to feel superior mentally, and to bring that about, it is usually necessary for the woman to conceal much of her intelligence.

Charles Blake, a miner, 50 years old, tired of life, and prospecting with poor prospects put a stick of dynamite on his head, lighted the fuse and waited.

Will power was necessary to stand while the fuse burned.
The man stood, the explosion blew his skull to atoms, and shook buildings for several blocks.

Airplane travel rates drop rapidly.
You fly from Los Angeles to San Francisco, 400 air miles, returning in a southern Pacific sleeper for $38.00, round trip.

The T. A. T. Maddux Air line reports loads 90 to 95 per cent capacity.
Eighteen planes added to the service to provide for increased business.

United States authorities at San Diego, are shocked to learn that the "irrigation committee" of the American Legion was organized at the state convention last year, to "irrigate" delegates with liquid refreshments that would not make them blind or send them home in pine boxes.

Raiders seized $27,000 worth of liquor guaranteed not to destroy the kidneys in less than two years.
The San Diego legion denies official existence of any irrigation committee.

LAW ALREADY IN

Inspectors Notified To Examine Drivers At Present Time

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—A movement was begun by state officials here today to remove all Ohio school bus drivers, who may be judged as unfit, following a statement by Attorney General Gilbert Bettman that all drivers of school buses will be required to pass a physical examination and be licensed as chauffeurs, as provided by state laws.

This action will occur, the Attorney General said, in all cases, whether the bus is owned by the driver or by the school board.

All inspectors in the department of motor vehicles were today notified of the requirements by Chambers R. Wilson, state commissioner of motor vehicles. A state-wide inspection of all school buses and drivers is under way, as the result of the third bus tragedy in Ohio during January, which occurred at Berea last Wednesday, when nine school children and the driver of the bus were killed by a passenger train.

Enforcement of the chauffeur's license law has, heretofore, been left in the hands of local authorities, and crippled and almost totally blind men have been given licenses, according to Secretary of State Clarence J. Brown.

Drivers of school buses, in addition to being licensed chauffeurs, are also required to possess a certificate as to their moral character and qualification for the position, Bettman said.

Ira E. Sprankle, superintendent of investigation of the state public utilities commission, said that the report of the commission's investigation into the Berea crash, will be given late today. He pointed out that the commission's jurisdiction covered only the railroad angle of the accident.

OTHER SIGNERS REMOVE NAMES

Neill Petition Deserted By Man and Wife In Apology Letter

Lisbon, Jan. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. H.
H. McCartney, who signed a petition asking for the removal of John P. Neill as superintendent of the Columbian county home, and which petition was filed with the county commissioners Jan. 13 have asked the commissioners to remove their names from the petition. In addition to this request, the two signers have also sent the following letter to Neill.

"We beg to explain that we have been a little hasty in signing those affidavits, which we understand are in the hands of the county commissioners.

"Until we have investigated the truth of the same, we feel that some part of this has been done through prejudice against you. We are arranging to have the county commissioners remove our names from the affidavits, as we do not wish to injure you or any one. Please accept our apologies for being so hasty."

The letter sent by Mr. and Mrs.
McCartney to the county commissioners was of similar purport.

Salem Lutherans Attend Meeting

Under the leadership of Lutheran churches of Youngstown and vicinity a conference on personal and congregational evangelism will be held at St. Luke's Lutheran church, Youngstown, at 4 p. m. Sunday, Rev.

Irene Schroeder Now At Murder Trial Scene

New Castle, Pa., Jan. 25.—Irene Schroeder, blonde trigger woman, and her alleged lover, Glen Dague, are back in the New Castle county jail, today, just two days less than a month after Corporal Brady Paul, of the state highway patrol, was shot and killed on the outskirts of town. It is in connection with Corporal Paul's death that the man and woman face a charge of murder.

The couple were whisked from the train which brought them on the last lap of the journey from Chandler, Ariz., at Mahoningtown last night and were brought to the jail in waiting automobiles.

Irene was handcuffed to Lieutenant Thomas Bettner and Dague to county Detective Martin Lee.
The woman did not see her son, Donnie, 4, although he was within a short distance of her last night.
He saw the crowds gathered about the windows of the juvenile detention home, but he did not know that the excitement was occasioned by the arrival of his mother.

She has denied participation in the Pennsylvania murder since her capture following a miniature war on the Arizona mountains in which airplanes, machine guns, blood-hounds and horses played a part.

"It was very entertaining," a deputy sheriff quoted her as saying after the battle when the party passed through Chicago yesterday.
With her in the custody of the squad was Walter Dague, alleged sweetheart and accomplice of Mrs.
Schroeder.

The girl was the most-sought-after woman in the country. Besides the Pennsylvania murder she is wanted for a Texas bank robbery and shooting, an Arizona kidnapping and attempted robbery and an attempted murder in Texas.

She appeared unembarrassed as she stepped from the train here in the midst of hundreds of trains commuters who stared at the handcuffs on her wrist.

WHALERS WILL GO TO AID OF
RICHARD BYRD

Norwegian Vessels Ready To Go Through Ice
If Desired

CONDITIONS NOT BAD, EXPERTS SAY

Those Familiar With All Of Area Take Appeal
Very Lightly

Oslo, Jan. 25.—Directors of the principal whaling companies operating in the antarctic were pledged today to do everything in their power to prevent Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd from being marooned by pack ice at his explorational base, Little America.

The belief was expressed, however, that there was little chance of Byrd and his crew being hopelessly hemmed in by ice until March at the earliest as reports from whaling vessels in the vicinity indicate that the ice is not in as bad shape as had been first reported.

The American government's appeal for Norwegian aid in getting Rear Admiral Byrd out of the antarctic has been sent to Chairman Rasmussen of the Norway corporation of whaling companies at Sandvord.

While all have promised to operate to the fullest extent whaling officials were unanimous in the belief that the pack ice would break up in plenty of time to permit Byrd's own boats to get through into the Ross sea.

A full conference was expected to take place among whaling officials today, at which time it will be decided what instructions to send to their various vessels in the antarctic.
It is likely that word will be sent out for all whaling captains to be prepared to go to the immediate aid of Rear Admiral Byrd if this is found to be necessary.

On behalf of the Norwegian government, it was said that a vessel would be dispatched to Little America immediately if word was received that Byrd's supplies were running low.

NEW FLOODS IN MID-WEST FORM WITH ICE JAMS

Airplanes Drop Supplies To Families In Areas
Covered by Water

Chicago, Jan. 25.—New floods were threatened along the Wabash river through southwestern Indiana and eastern Illinois today as ice jams dammed up threatening tons of water and floating ice.

Although relief workers under the direction of the Red Cross reported that virtually all of the marooned families have been provided with emergency food and clothing, the new menace of shattered levees and flooded villages made rescue groups and marooned colonies uneasy.

The ice gorge was reported to be forming above New Haven, Ill., spreading water through the Wabash valley lands.
Bundles of food carried to earth by small parachutes dropped from airplanes brought relief in the Decker Chapel area of Indiana yesterday. The fliers yesterday reported they have made contact with all Chub 26 of marooned families in the Decker territory.

SALEM DEBATERS DEFEAT CHANEY

Forensic Season Comes To Close For High School Teams Under Direction of J. C. Guiler

Salem High's affirmative debate team closed its 1929-30 season with its first victory in three contests, winning the decision over Youngstown Chaney at the high school auditorium Friday night.

The affirmative team had previously lost two consecutive debates.
The negative team, which ended its season Thursday night, had a record of two victories and one defeat, losing its first decision of the year to Youngstown East High this week.

The teams were coached by J. C.
Guiler, member of the high school faculty staff.

Jamaica Ginger Sale Halted By Beetham

Columbus, O., Jan. 25.—A warning to druggists and confectionery store proprietors of Ohio to stop the sale of Jamaica ginger for beverage purposes was issued Friday by Rupert R. Beetham, state prohibition commissioner.

"State prohibition agents and county and city officials are on the watch for anyone guilty of selling Jamaica ginger, or similar compounds for beverage purposes," said Beetham.

"Arrests will be made wherever this practice is followed."

Policemen Battle Over Patrol

Chicago, Jan. 25.—Policemen George Sirovacka and George Polaski were unable to settle the issue of who was going to drive the patrol wagon so they resorted to their trusty revolvers to settle the argument.

Latest bulletins today from Sirovacka's hospital bed held little chance for his recovery.
He is seriously injured with a bullet in his chest, another in his abdomen and a third in his arm.

Sirovacka was driving last night when Polaski insisted that he take the wheel. Si-rovacka refused to move and drew his gun and shot once, according to witnesses.

Polaski returned the fire and his companion officer fell.

RAIL MERGERS NOW LOOMING

Conferences With Leaders Taken As Sign Of Applications

Washington, Jan. 25.—Reports reaching Washington today that closely guarded conferences are being held between high officials of the Baltimore & Ohio, New York Central and the Van Sweringen interests, gave color to predictions that further independent merger applications will be filed with the interstate commerce commission.

The highly favorable showing the Baltimore & Ohio has made in endeavoring to convince the commission it should be allowed to have stock control of the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh in advance of consideration of its general merger plan, and the expectation that an equally good showing will be made in the Buffalo & Susquehanna case, has convinced many railroad leaders that these independent merger applications stand a good chance of winning the commission's approval.

As the Baltimore & Ohio and the Van Sweringen stand to gain more than any other existing systems from the commission's tentative consolidation program, it seems probable they would lose no time in making use of the opportunity it offers to push their projects along.

While no information has been forthcoming about these conferences, it is reasonable to assume the New York Central participation in them is largely concerned with negotiations between the trunk lines as to the disposition of the Reading & Jersey Central.

Leadership Meeting Report To Grangers

Ernest Kampfer and Otis Rhodes made a report of the leadership meeting at Canfield at a meeting of Goshen grange Friday evening at the hall northwest of Salem. Three candidates were initiated in the third and fourth degrees.

Mrs. Lewis Campbell and daughter, Averil, entertained with a piano duet and there was community singing.

Officers of the grange will hold a conference Friday night at the home of Otis Rhodes, northwest of Salem.

PROPOSED CANAL FOR OHIO FACES U. S. OPPOSITION

War Department Refers
Action On Project
To Cities

Washington, Jan. 25.—The proposed "Pittsburgh to Lake Erie Canal" is a "dead issue" until the cities along its proposed route submit data to the war department and congress showing the potential tonnage that can be expected to move over it, war department officials announced Friday.

This attitude was shared by Rep.
Sirovacka (Ill.) of Pennsylvania, one of the backers of the project. He said the responsibility rested on city officials along the proposed route to furnish the department and congress with statistics showing the necessity and convenience of the canal.

At the war department, it was said the scheduled army engineer hearing on Feb. 4 probably would deal only with improvement of the Allegheny river between Pittsburgh and Oil City. This stretch of the river would be a part of the proposed canal route between the Mississippi river and the Great Lakes if the canal ever is constructed between Oil City and Lake Erie.

According to the army engineers there are three available routes connecting the Ohio with the lake, one via Toledo and Miami river; second from Sandusky via Scioto river, and the third from Cleveland via the Muskingum river.

The Miami river from Toledo strikes the Ohio at Cincinnati, the Scioto at Portsmouth, Ohio, and the Muskingum at Marietta. These cities will also be represented at the hearing.

Immigration Asked Of Negro Laborers

Washington, Jan. 25.—Modification of the Johnson bill to permit importation of Mexicans for seasonal labor in California and other western states was advocated before the house immigration committee Friday by Harry Chandler, millionaire publisher of the Los Angeles Times.

The alternative, he said, was to permit an influx of Filipinos, Polynesians, Porto Ricans or other negroes in California.

Father, Son Burned To Death In Fire

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 25.— George Routsaw, 52, and his 12-year-old son, Bobbie, lost their lives in a fire which swept their home in Galewood, Friday.

Another son, James, eight, was rescued by his 13-year-old sister, Marjorie. She dragged her brother through a window with his clothes ablaze and rolled him in the snow.
He is in a serious condition in St.
Mary's hospital. Routsaw and Bobbie died in their beds.

Origin of the blaze has not been determined.

Cruiser Agreement Must Be Clinched When
U. S. Enters

London, Jan. 25.—Like a painted ship upon a painted ocean the London naval conference hung motionless today while the statesmen of the five great powers mulled and trying to find an approach to disarmament problems that will not lead them through the dangerous shoals of controversy.

The first week of the conference developed little except handshaking, cratrical platitudes and recognition of the fact that outside of the Anglo-American cruiser agreement made at Washington in October, little progress has been made in any direction since the Geneva tri-partite disarmament conference and that the differences between the European powers are just as keen as ever.
The conference hasn't even an agenda as yet, although it is understood that a tentative program has been suggested by the British for consideration over the week-end and "likely to be acted on by the 'big five' at Monday's plenary session in St. James' palace.

America Stands Pat

There are considerable differences concerning this Agenda, Britain and Japan favoring taking up the question of a battleship holiday first while the American delegates are holding strongly to the decision reached at Washington that a cruiser agreement must be clinched before the United States consents to anything.

Senators Joseph T. Robinson and David A. Reed, members of the American delegation who represent the sentiment of the United States senate are outspoken opponents of cruisers represent the chief American interest in this conference.
Other matters being more or less incidental.

Then there is the perennial sticking point between Great Britain and France as to whether limitation should be by global tonnage or by categories, in which the American viewpoint supports the British view that allotments should be made by classifications.

The fact that there is no agenda as yet, despite the fact the conference has been in swing for nearly a full week is already leading to some criticism over the way the parley is being handled.

WETS-DRYS WAR AGAINST HOOVER

President's Plans Meeting Opposition From All
In Washington

Washington, Jan. 24.—A determined effort by congressional drys to modify President Hoover's prohibition program appeared under way on Capitol Hill today in addition to the wet attacks on the proposed campaign for drying of America.

The drys seemed intent on changing the president's recommendations both for transferring the prohibition bureau to the department of justice and for conferring police magistrate powers on United States commissioners. Some dry leaders wanted the first measure amended to include the industrial alcohol section while others protested the latter bill was unconstitutional.

The prohibition spotlight meanwhile shifted from Capitol Hill to Bishop James Cannon, Jr., chairman of the board of temperance of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. On the eve of a trip to Europe, Bishop Cannon issued a vigorous statement attacking prohibition-ists, denouncing Roman Catholic opposition to prohibition and appealing to congress to enact legislation and provide men and money to put down "this twentieth century whiskey rebellion."

Lightning Forms Hazard To Airplane Pilots When Aloft In Electrical Storm Clouds

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Aviation experts determined to eliminate as many of the flying hazards as possible, have set to consider what appears to be one of the biggest obstacles to safety in the air. It concerns the matter of lightning striking a plane in flight. Various investigations conducted by different organizations so far have effected but small satisfaction.

A helping hand toward the solution of the problem was offered recently by Popular Mechanics Magazine, which asked in a direct answer by asking 4,000 licensed pilots to state individual experiences with lightning.

Thousands of Replies.
The replies came in by the hundreds, showing to what extent the gentlemen of the air are interested in arriving at some sort of definite conclusion towards this atmospheric danger. On the basis of this analysis, engineers of the Ohio Brass company are now striking plane models, motor parts and full-sized ships with man-made lightning and studying effects of the charges.

The sum total of the replies brought forth one authenticated case of lightning striking a plane in flight, several unverified cases of crashes attributed to lightning, and many unverified accounts of battles for life against the marauder of the air.

Some optimistic pilots insisted that an airplane inflight could not be struck by lightning. Nevertheless, official records state positively that eight balloons have fallen victims to lightning bolts within the past nine years. Zeppelins have been hit more than 100 times, although none were wrecked.

Accident Described.
The verified case of lightning in which a 14 passenger plane flying between London and Paris was struck down during a storm over Picardy, was described in a report as follows:

"Suddenly there was a loud report as a flash of lightning struck the machine. A large piece of fabric on the lower part of the plane was burned, the compass was put out of action and one engine started to miss. Apparently the permanent field of one of the magnets had been upset. On examination it was found that, in addition to the hole in the fabric, one of the main spars was scorched, all of the bonding was fused and one of the ailerons damaged."

The deaths of Capt. Emil Carranza in 1923, Mexican ace, and Morris M. Titterton, inventor of the earth inductor compass were blamed on lightning bolts. When a mail plane plunged to earth during the same year with motor roaring, it was generally believed the pilot had been stunned by lightning. A naval board of inquiry rendered a similar verdict in a Chesapeake Bay crash in 1927.

Curious experience attributed to lightning were related by several pilots. One man said he had not been struck but "warned up" by lightning heat while flying. He declared it was "like running up against a real hot fire." An Eastern pilot told of being cured of a desire to flirt with thunderstorm clouds after one of them had proved "too darned rough." Downcurrents encountered in these electrical disturbances, according to many pilots, have caused them as much as 3,000 feet of altitude loss in a few seconds.

Another Experience.
Another pilot recounted seeing a heavy discharge from the metal tips of his propeller blades during a storm, describing it as a faint, bluish glow which formed a narrow ring around the area swept by the blades. Still another reported that lightning engulfed him entirely as he was proceeding through a severe storm, but that he felt no ill effect with the exception of becoming temporarily blinded.

The pilot of a tri-motored transport said a flash of lightning blinded him for half a minute but caused no damage to his ship while another reported that his ship plunged downward dangerously from a height of 5,000 feet directly after a shaft of zigzag lightning had split the sky. After attempting to force his way through a thunder cloud three times, a western pilot said his plane "was violently thrown out by the terrific force of the boiling motion of the wind." A government pilot stated his ship wires appeared to be red-hot during lightning storms, but admitted this might be an optical illusion brought on by momentary blinding from an electric flash.

Dry Administrator Dropped from Post

Washington, Jan. 23.—John J. Quinn, formerly assistant prohibition administrator for the Maryland district, has been "dropped for the good of the service." The prohibition bureau confirmed his dismissal late Friday at a secret hearing. The nature of the charges preferred against Quinn were not divulged. Quinn's last superior was John F. C. Herbert, recently relieved as Maryland's administrator, and assigned to a less important position in Montana.

Station Attendant Shoots Gun Bandit

Toledo, O., Jan. 23.—John Murray, 19, of Cleveland, was probably fatally wounded by Everett Taylor, 31, here Friday after Murray had held up and robbed the filling station which was operated by Taylor.

Murray entered the filling station, forced Taylor to stand in a corner with his back toward him, and robbed the cash drawer of about $25. Taylor told police.

As the youthful bandit ran from the station with the money, Taylor fired two shots at him, one of the bullets landing in his neck.

Murray is in Flower hospital, where he was taken by police. Hospital physicians said it was doubtful if he would live.

Owners of Papers Affected in Bill

Washington, Jan. 23.—News-papers would be required to disclose the names of their "real owners" in annual statements filed with the postmaster general under a bill of Senator Philip H. (R) of Colorado, approved by the senate post office committee today.

In the annual statement the newspaper would be required to include in addition to routine information concerning their stockholders "such additional information concerning the interests, direct or indirect, of any person in such publication or its stocks, bonds, or securities as the postmaster general shall require."

Real Asparagus On Table; $5 a Bunch

London, Jan. 23.—Asparagus of five dollars a bunch was among the delicacies served to the American Arms conference delegates at a dinner today in the Grosvenor Hotel.

Asparagus in London in January is as scarce as the proverbial hen's tooth, but black was determined to have it. The markets were ransacked, and a sufficient supply finally was found in the luxurious shops of London's west end.

Young Stage Star Dies From Illness

Philadelphia, Jan. 23.—Gordon Dooley, star comedian of the stage for many years, died Thursday night at the home of his mother in Ryewood. It became known today that death was due to complications following an attack of pneumonia and puerility.

Although only 31 years of age, Dooley had turned in a number of productions. He was playing an important part in the "Vandies" in New York when stricken in two months ago.

As news of his death spread, dry numerous telegrams and flowers arrived from his former associates and stage mates.

Dooley made his last appearance here in "Honeycomb Lane," a little more than a year ago. He will be buried today.

50 horsepower six-cylinder engine

Not until you drive the new Chevrolet Six can you appreciate what a wonderful improvement has been made in its famous six-cylinder valve-in-head engine. With its capacity increased to 50 horsepower, it has great reserve energy for sweeping up the steepest hills—for swift acceleration—and for sustained high speeds. Its power flows evenly and smoothly. And it is extremely flexible in traffic. In fact—it does everything you could possibly want a motor to do. Yet it is remarkably economical in its use of gasoline and oil. Come in today for a demonstration.

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, Jan. 2.—Shirtwaists are spelling chic in the advance spring fashions now appearing at the smart couturiers in Paris for after long weeks of strong argument, the fashion-makers have gradually put the waistline where it once belonged.

Of course this does not refer to the stiff old-fashioned shirtwaists of the days of long ago, but in principle it much resembles its sister of 1890, with the tuck-in idea most prominent and the reviving interest in color combinations which will undoubtedly mean a big change in the popular ensemble idea.

Some of the dressmakers predict that the shirtwaist shown that women are a bit tired of one-color ensembles they are now wearing for so long and at the same time is an indication toward real sports clothes for genuine sports occasion. Neatly-tailored skirts and shirtwaists replace two-piece frocks which could vaguely serve for most any hour of the day.

The simplest of plain gray, trout pullovers in a momentary favorite worn tucked into a tawed suit of like color. The necktie is a tab like the pullover. Most of the ties come in the same material knotted in front after having been attached to the blouse across the back and shoulder.

For afternoon wear with the dressier type of costume, there are lovely satin and crepe blouses with jabot effects which are very feminine. Before spring really comes we may possibly see a return to the beaded or embroidered afternoon shirtwaist.

A machine has been invented to make flat match sticks for advertising purposes and print inscriptions on them.

Tuning in on the Talkies

CONTAINERS take talkies to hundreds of towns that would never see the plays and players arrive on a passenger train.

"Not a Drum Was Heard" in silent films. Now listen to 'em!

"The Woman Who Walked Alone" had probably just kicked a fresh escort on the shins.

"The Price Woman Pays" is usually gauged by what she considers is a bargain.

Sally O'Neill

"Hell's Oats" depends for popularity on future bookings.

"Fools in the Dark" whistle on their fingers and stamp their feet.

Monte Blue and Myrna Loy will principally inhabit "The Isle of Escape." Happily they will be on speaking terms via Vitaphone.

"The Tie That Binds" usually makes a fellow hot under the collar.

"The Unfair Sex" is the opposite sex, of course.

For "Double Feature" Day
"Out All Night"
"That's My Daddy"

Fence-Rail Talkies

Farmer Sila says: "My boy in college tells me they have traffic problems in the city. My traffic problem is to keep him behind the miles and between plowhandles."

Talk About Your Talkies

Sally O'Neill will cavort soubretishly in "Hold Everything."

Marian Nixon will make an extremely "Sweet Kitty Bellairs."

Warner Bros. started a lot of talk when they introduced Vitaphone.

For the several millionth time Al Jolson will rhyme "Alabammy" with "Mammy" in his new "single."

Americanism: Breaking the laws that cramp your style; thinking the other fellow should be jailed for breaking the laws that cramp his style.

Today's Pattern

1832

PRINTED cotton fabrics are the outstanding textile success for the coming spring season, for sports and house frocks alike. Today we are presenting an adorable frock suitable for either occasion. The cleverly shaped neck, and the repeated design of the skirt flare are interesting features of style importance.

Design 1832 may be made of printed pique, damask, madras, percale, ratine, etc. The neck, sleeves and skirt flare are bound in braid of contrasting color, an easy and attractive finish for raw edges.

May be obtained only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material and 4 1/2 yards braid.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

COUPON

This pattern will be delivered upon receipt of 10c coin or check, carefully wrapped. Latest fashion book free. Send all orders to SALEM NEWS PATTERN DEPARTMENT, 243 WEST 17TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

Rev. George D. Keister, pastor.

Third Sunday after the Epiphany, Sunday school, 9:45. (Matthew 5:1-48) J. A. Fehr, Supt.

The high level of thought and teaching of the Sermon on the Mount has never been reached or equaled by the genius of man. Only the Christ, the Son of God could be the author of such instruction and truth. Truly are they blessed, who will take to heart these principles of living as expressed by our Lord.

Morning worship, 11, sermon, "Increasing Faith."

That we all have some faith is evident. That everyone has sufficient faith is not accepted as fact. The amount of faith is quite essential. However, the object of our faith is most important of all. That should be the Christ our Saviour, and none other. Why be content with faith in tiny amounts, when with Divine help our faith may be increased.

Luther league, 6:30, the topic is, "The Luther League and Porto Rico." The leagues of the United States are planning to erect a training school for workers in our Porto Rican mission field.

A special meeting of the Dorcas society will be held after the morning service.

The Jessie Thomas circle, Young Women's Missionary society meets Tuesday evening.

The Mission study class meets Friday evening at 7:30, at the home of Mrs. A. M. Schropp, West Seventh st.

Catechism class meets Saturday at 9 a. m.

Preaching services at the Washingtonville Lutheran church Sunday evening at 7:30.

First Baptist, Rev. A. C. Westphal, pastor.

Back of every human need there is a supply commensurate with the need. For the sinner there is a Saviour. For sin there is salvation. For death there is eternal life. Where sin abounded grace did much more abound. A cordial invitation is extended to all, to worship with us on the Lord's day. There will be five services.

Bible school at 9:45, Merle Miller, Supt.

Morning worship at 11, Dr. J. M. Ham, evangelist, will preach, subject, "The Desert and the Garden."

Afternoon service at 3 o'clock. At this meeting, Dr. Ham will address ladies, only. All ages of women and girls are invited. Tickets can be secured during the services in the morning, or at the entrance to the church in the afternoon.

There will be two services in the evening. One at 6 o'clock, subject, "Seeing the Orient Through American Eyes." This will be open to the public, and will be the evangelist's lecture, based on his tour through many lands.

Evangelistic service at 7:30, subject, "The Love of God Four-square." It is advised that an early arrival will assure a seat. The Friends church will unite with us in this service and will furnish a quartet number. All music during the campaign is in charge of Rev. C. L. Coand of Damascus. Services will be held every night of next week, except Saturday.

First Methodist Episcopal, South Broadway, Sidney A. Mayer, minister. A cordial welcome is extended to all.

Sunday 9:45—Church school. Neil Grises, superintendent. You owe it to yourself to be in some church school. If you are not attending elsewhere we cordially invite you.

11:00—Morning worship. Sermon by Dr. Henry S. Powell, district superintendent of the Steubenville district of the Methodist church. The Junior and Intermediate Leagues will convene with the adult congregation and retire to their respective rooms following the Junior sermon.

6:30—Epworth League Devotional meeting. Leader: Harold Hurst. Topic: "When Defeat Is Victory."

7:30—Evening service. Sermon theme: "The Supreme Heresy." The pastor will include in this sermon gleanings from the State Pastor's convention held this past week in Columbus.

Wednesday 7:30—Midweek service. Theme: "The Parable of the Rich Fool."

Thursday 7:30—Choir Rehearsal. 7:30—Boy Scouts.

Church of Our Saviour, 870, East State st. Rev. Christian A. Roth, pastor.

SerVICES, Sunday, Jan. 26, the third Sunday after Epiphany. Celebration of the Holy Communion, 7:30. Church school, 9:30; morning prayer and sermon, 11.

The Epistle for this Sunday, Romans 12:16, shows that Christ's manifestation of mercy sets a pattern for the life of the Christian.

It is the idea of corporate life which rules the counsel, "strengthened individuality is to enrich an organized society."

Evil is everywhere, but the Christian has within him a force that is stronger than evil, and by actively exercising it he may (according to proverb) heap shame upon wrongdoing as coals upon a fire.

Retaliation must be as carefully avoided as revenge. If God punishes, there is no need for man to do so, and if He refuses to punish, man ought not to do so. To overcome evil with good is the Christian-like way of victory, this conquers the enemy as well as the enemy. And because strife is often set up by a misunderstanding, we are warned not to be wise in our own conceits.

First Friends, "Where Friends Enjoy Friendship," Rev. C. P. Bailey, pastor.

Early morning hour of prayer from 7 to 8 o'clock.

Bible school 9:45, Raymond Ingram, superintendent, Walter Regal, leader of the orchestra.

25 STARS AND A CHOCOLATE OF 2007

TALKING SINGING DANCING PICTURES

With Marion Davies, John Gilbert, Norma Shearer, Wm. Haines, Joan Crawford, Buster Keaton, Bessie Love, Charles King, Conrad Nagel, Marie Dressler, Jack Benny, Gus Edwards, Dane and Arthur, Laurel and Hardy, Ukulele Ike, Anita Page, Polly Moran, Ower Lee, Brox Sisters, Albertina, Ranch Ballet, Natacha Nattova & Co., The Rounders.

Talking Pictures — they bring to you stars, singing and instrumental music you could never hope to hear or see only in PICTURES. They are educational and entertaining and the cheapest form of recreation.

It is our aim to give to Salem the best pictures money can buy at a price within the reach of all. In order to do so, we must have your support. When you see a good picture, call up your friends and tell them for they would enjoy it also.

MOVIES

A galaxy of highly rated cinematic productions, at least two of them among the latest of Hollywood's talking features, are scheduled for showing in Salem, at the Grand and State theaters next week.

Heading the list of features there is the "Hollywood Revue" which is billed as a screen sensation which ranks equally in greatness to the current hit "Gold-Diggers of Broadway" which ran here for a week a month ago. A score of Hollywood's leading personalities are included in the cast.

The two late hits scheduled for showing here during the week are "Love Comes Along" and "The Love Racket." The former stars Bebe Daniels in a picture declared by previewers as one of even greater magnitude in vividness and force than "Rio Rita," Miss Daniels' hit of recent days. "Rio Rita," by the way, is billed to appear here for a four-day showing soon.

First Ohio Showing
"Love Comes Along" is just out of New York and was shown in Ohio for the first time last week. "The Love Racket" has yet to be seen by an Ohio audience and stars Dorothy Mackall and Sidney Blackmer.

Greta Garbo, the piker-face of real life but the sensational emotionalist on the screen, gives another tragic portrayal of her acting talents in "The Kiss" with Conrad Nagel co-starred in the leading male role. An all-talking serial, the latest screen innovation, comes to the Grand for the first time next Thursday. It is "King of the Congo."

"The Hollywood Revue" opens a four-day stay at the State Monday. An all-talking comedy will also be shown. "The Kiss" will be shown at this theater Friday and Saturday along with a talkie comic and a screen song and sound news.

The two latest hits are both shown at the Grand. "The Love Racket" comes Monday and stays through until Wednesday. "Love Comes Along" starts Thursday and closes Saturday. All-talking comedies and sound news and acts are featured both at the Grand and State.

EAST ROCHESTER

William F. Tarbet, 85, died Sunday in his home in Bayard. He was a Civil War Veteran. ONE DEAD, MANY HURT IN RIOTS

Lull In Race Warfare In California City When Police Take Hand

Watsonville, Cal., Jan. 25.—With one Filipino dead, many others suffering from cuts and bruises, there was a lull in the race rioting in this section today.

Seven white youths have been arrested on charges of rioting. Six of them are held in jail at Salinas, in lieu of bail.

Members of the American Legion augmented the police force in patrolling the streets here and in maintaining a guard over houses quartering Filipinos.

The race riots, long brewing, came to a climax when white girls were employed as entertainers and dancing partners at a Filipino club at Palm Beach near here.

Many Filipinos are employed in the lettuce fields and farms in this vicinity. Although many maintain it is necessary to have Filipinos to carry on this work, others claim their progress deprived white men of work.

Fernin Tabera, 22-year-old ranch laborer, was shot to death at a ranch four miles from Salinas, when an enraged mob invaded the farm in search of a number of Filipinos they had chased out of Watsonville and Pajaro.

Two representatives of the Filipino citizens league have arrived here from Los Angeles, to investigate the attacks and to prosecute those found guilty of rioting.

HOOVER OPPOSED IN COURT PLANS

Group of Attorneys From Capital City Form Delegation To Fight New System

Washington, Jan. 25.—The first formal attack on President Hoover's proposal to enter upon a new system of federal judges was voiced by a delegation of local attorneys who took a house judiciary sub-committee the plan was "unnecessary, dangerous and unconstitutional."

James C. Duke, heading the delegation, charged the plan to eliminate jury trials in petty prosecution cases was "unconstitutional." He cited a United States supreme court decision that any conviction, carrying even a single day's jail sentence, was not a "petty offense."

Duke denied there was any court congestion due to jury trials. He pointed out that state courts were far behind federal courts in many states and that the federal courts were averaging only fifty jury trials a year.

Leathers Tax Free

Washington, Jan. 25.—All hides, varieties of leather goods, boots and shoes were restored to the free list in the new tariff bill on Friday, by the senate as the climax to a week's debate over tariff protection for cattle raisers and the tanning industry.

Great Son.—The social committee served a lunch at the close of the program.

R. H. Vaughn, local expert gave a talk on "How Can We Get the Highest Efficiency From Our Poultry Feeds" at the meeting of the Green-Land Farmers' institute Thursday afternoon using the subject, "Some daily Chick Problems." He will use this subject at the North Lima institute Saturday.

The Red Division of the Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church held an all-day quilting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Haney, North Main st. The Blue Division met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Glackler, Lisbon st.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Todd will entertain the Rosemont club Friday evening, dinner being served at the Lutheran church by the Daughters of the King.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Read have gone to Los Angeles, Cal., where they will spend some time visiting with Mr. Read's mother, Mrs. Sarah Read, and other relatives.

The King's Daughters class of Grace Reformed Sunday school, taught by Miss Lois Fire, will hold a covered dish dinner Friday evening in the church social room.

Mrs. Otto Souder and three children, who have spent the past three months with relatives at Oakland, Cal., have returned home.

Mrs. George Churan entertained the Kumagen club Thursday evening at her home in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Metz North Jackson, are spending a few days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Metz, Union st. Mrs. M. E. Baker and daughter, Mrs. Hazel Ochrie, Leetonia, were Columbiana visitors Thursday.

Wire-Haired Terrier Mother Lost Here

It is very probable that some wire-haired fox terrier puppies in this vicinity are worried about the disappearance of their mother, as this morning an excellent wire-haired was found in the Salem downtown area, nearly frozen. Deputy Sheriff C. A. Donahay turned the mother over to Humane Officer Clarkson French in hopes that the owner will call for the dog.

SEPARATED PAIR ARE STILL PAIS

Matrimonial Division Does Not Affect Daily Association of New York Couple

New York, Jan. 25.—Although Dr. George Frederick Kunz, vice president of Tiffany and company, and Mrs. Opal Gilbert Kunz had their marriage annulled in November, 1929, they are still living in the same house and still "very good friends." It was learned today. The grounds for the annulment were "incompatibility."

Mrs. Kunz explained her aviation interests kept her out of the city often and she "could not be a good wife to any man." She declared she still managed the Kunz household and drove Dr. Kunz to work in the family car every day and brought him home in the evening.

The wedding of the pair was a New York social event seven years ago. Mrs. Kunz, who is a pilot of ability, is 30 years old.

"We expect to remain friends for the rest of our lives," Mrs. Kunz said. "There was nothing unpleasant in the proceedings. We managed to settle our trouble without anything insulting to each other. If more people could settle their troubles in an amicable way it would be a better world."

Woman's new freedom is especially enjoyable if at night she can return to a house where some mere man gives assurance of safety.
